

♪ JEWISH MUSICAL SATIRE DRAY ♫

with David Misch / www.davidmisch.com

David Misch ("Mork and Mindy," "The Muppets Take Manhattan," "Saturday Night Live", "Funny: The Book," comedy courses at USC and UCLA), returns to My Jewish Learning with a third program of musical satire.

This edition features songs from a wide range of artists – Tom Lehrer, Stephen Sondheim, Phil Ochs, Mel Brooks, Madeline Kahn, Sheldon Harnick, Rachel Bloom and Bob Dylan (singing for Christmas) – in an equally wide variety of genres: movies, TV, Broadway, folk, polka and even country.

Plus, in the spirit of religious pluralism, we'll hear from a few non-Jews, including John Lennon, Patti Lupone, and an all-Nazi jazz band.

So join us for a tuneful, laugh-filled show that asks the question "Wait, Dylan sang a Christmas carol? And John Lennon sang in Hebrew?!" and answers "Oy!"

"Insightful and hilarious" – The Jewish Journal

Among David's TV and movie credits are "Mork & Mindy," "Saturday Night Live" and "The Muppets Take Manhattan." He's also a songwriter and author of "A Beginner's Guide To Corruption" and "Funny: The Book." He's spoken at the Smithsonian, Yale, Columbia, Oxford, 92Y, Grammy Museum, Midwest Popular Culture Association, Austin Film Festival, Raindance Film Festival (London), CineStudio Paris, University of Sydney, and the VIEW Cinema Conference (Torino, Italy).
